

Halsway Manor Millennium Players - New CD!

TEN YEARS ON - Music, Song and Dance.

20 JULY 2010

The Halsway Manor Millennium Players are proud to present their new CD - "TEN YEARS ON". It is an eclectic collection of music and songs played by the Millennium Players and recorded live at Halsway Manor in April 2010. This CD is the second CD for the Orchestra as they recorded their first live CD on St. George's Day 2000.

Halsway Manor is a national centre for Traditional Music in the United Kingdom and hosts many events and courses during the year.

Halsway is beautiful Elizabethan Manor House located on the Southern slopes of the Quantock hills in West Somerset.

Many of the musicians in the Halsway Manor Millennium Players lead their own bands or play in one of the many Folk Dance Bands which perform regularly in the United Kingdom.

SKYLARK - SPREADING OUR WINGS

After the success of their debut recording SKYLARK decided that this follow-up CD should show them "spreading their wings".

The trademark high energy contra dance tunes are still there, however, there are a few extra items which reflect the variety of tunes that they have been asked to play at dances. Reels and Jigs, Key to the Cellar, Emma's Waltz, Polychromatic Gentleman, and Remembering Alan. To buy the new SKYLARK CD, visit
